

The shelf system is aligned with the base height of the Sendai 110 stove.
Both modules are also available separately and can be combined with other stoves.

Hase stoves are available at authorised specialised dealers.

Kaminofen Sendai 110 with two woodboxes and a box with wooden lid.

Go ahead, combine.

Everything you need for a good fire now has its own place right next to the stove.

The open shelves are perfect for storing wood and for everything you want to have right beside your fire. The box with the solid oak lid makes it easy and convenient to stow kindling, lighters and matches.

You can flexibly place the shelves and boxes next to the stove – as many and in any arrangement you want. Just the way you like it.
